What are the costs?

You have to pay for the Red Credits (Paypal etc)

You can then convert them into blue credits for Design or Green Credits for Races. My calculation is that its about 20 to 30p per race. Each race lasts somewhere between 5 to 8 minutes

Entering a regatta and a race

Press the Icon of one of the events in progress. The details of the event then come up

If you press the ones coming up nothing happens

The i is the information about the Race and the Regatta Series .
The podium gives you the world wide results so far.
The sailing boats give you your own results over a series of races and the camera allows you to watch other races as they happen.
Press Triangle to get admitted to a race.

Race Helps – You need all of them so press the right pointing Triangle – we are now going to watch an e-sailing race
